A Yeah, we were at the store, we were pulled over at a gas station.

Q Okay. [redacted]

A [redacted]

Q Okay.

A [redacted]

Q All right. Do you remember who the police officers were that came and spoke with you?

A No, I think one of them name was Rocky or Rocko or Rock something.

Q Okay. Do you remember --

A He -- huh?

Q I'm sorry.

A Nobody believed me, him, the lady and the other officers, none of them believed me at first.

Q What I'm trying to get a -- a feel from you, ma'am, is, to the best of your recollection, the names or any identification --

A That's the only person I remember, him.

Q Okay. You've said the word "police officers" in the plural.

A Yeah, but I don't know their names, it was

Q Do you know Carla Johnson?
A No, I don't.
Q Do you know Kala Lyles?
A Of course, I do.
Q Okay. How do you know her?
A Been knowing her for many years.
Q What's many?
A Like many years, like some years, like long time ago.
Q Do you know -- did you know her before Holtzclaw violated you?
A Before I -- yeah, but I hadn't seen her in a long time before then.
Q Okay. When did you learn that Holtzclaw had assaulted someone, other than you?
A I don't know, like some months later, I don't know how many months, but it was like a few months later, maybe four or five, six months later.
Q Later from when?
A From when it happened to me. I thought I was the first one. I thought I was the only one.
Q How did you learn there were other victims?
A Just in passing, through the news, through going through the meetings that we might all have to paragraph on that first page --

A I didn't make --

MR. HALL: Come on, come on.

Q (By Mr. Smith) If you look at the last paragraph on that page, ma'am, the last full paragraph, "The suspect was a dark" -- "dark skinned white male with black hair and appeared to be about 40 years old." Do you know how old Holtzclaw was at the time of the rape?

A I don't know how old he was.

Q Okay. "She stated he was in a black and white car with a cage in the back seat;" correct?

A Yes.

Q You know he had a solid black car at that time?

A No, he didn't. He had a black -- he was in a black and white vehicle.

Q All right, ma'am.

A Wrong with this.

Q Let's go on with -- going to hand you what's --

MR. SMITH: And I've lost number, gentlemen, you've got them.

MR. HALL: 5.

MR. SMITH: I'm up to 5?

one I'm talking about is just going to be Number 12, so you could use one, two or three, or the original one, two or three, but -- but I'm introducing the third amended, and I'm sorry, I've lost my numbers. 6.

MR. JOHNSON: That was 6?

MR. SMITH: Yes, sir. Here, no, I forgot, you're --

MR. HALL: Thank you.

Q (By Mr. Smith) Would you look at Count 12.

MR. SOLOMON-SIMMONS: It's the third page.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

MR. SOLOMON-SIMMONS: The next one.

Q (By Mr. Smith) Do you see it's alleged that on May 8th, 2014, Holtzclaw violated you, ma'am?

A Yeah.

Q Do you know how the date May 8th was arrived at?

A I wasn't -- I wasn't -- it wasn't May the 8th when I was violated, I was violated three or four days before I reported it.

Q Okay. Ma'am, do you understand that the reason we picked May 8th was because that's the date

Holtzclaw ran your name through the computer system?

A That wasn't the day that he raped me.

MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.

Q (By Mr. Smith) Go ahead. He's -- he's made his objection. If you understand my question, you can answer it, if you don't understand my question, please ask me to explain it.

A I understand on here, but that wasn't the date, I don't know what --

Q Okay. So you say May 8th is not the date?

A I don't remember the day, the date, but I don't think it was that day, it was -- because it was just a few days before I finally got it out in the open.

Q Okay. Ma'am --

A I don't remember, I don't recall. You tell me to recall something, I can't recall these dates.

Q Did Holtzclaw put you in his car?

A Yes, he did.

Q Did he run your name?

A Yes, he did.

Q Did it come back with warrants or no warrants?

A No warrants.

[redacted]

[redacted]

A Yeah, he gave it back to me.

MR. SMITH: Counsel, I'll show you again, okay, where I'm talking about, okay?

Q (By Mr. Smith) "Now, you say it was a car like this one, the older police car," and you say yeah?

A He had a --

Q Do you see that?

A Yeah, well, I recall a black and white car that day, and I might have forgot, but I -- to me until today, I still recall him in a black and white car.

Q That's fine, ma'am. Just -- just answer my questions, we can get through this. And then a little bit later he asks for a description.

MR. SMITH: Counsel.

THE WITNESS: Yeah.

MR. HALL: I got it.

Q (By Mr. Smith) "I think he was white, maybe he had some Indian in him or Irish or something because his skin complexion was like, you know, like a dark color." Do you see that?
